

Alston & Bird LLP Invites You to Join Us for a Special Teleseminar

Regulatory Reform Legislation: Consumer Protection Developments

Speakers

Frank A. Hirsch, Jr., Partner, Alston & Bird LLP, Raleigh, NC

Dwight C. Smith, III, Partner, Alston & Bird LLP, Washington, D.C.

M. Christina Young, Associate, Alston & Bird LLP, Atlanta, GA

About the Seminar

Alston & Bird's series on the repercussions of the financial crisis continues with a special seminar on the regulatory reform legislation and consumer protection developments. Attendees will hear from three Alston & Bird attorneys in the Financial Services & Products Group and the Litigation & Trial Practice Group.

The panelists will address the following:

- Comparative review of Obama administration proposal, first House Financial Services Committee bill, and the subsequent discussion draft.
- Recent regulatory developments that would supplement or supersede legislation.
- Update on status of legislation and regulation in regard to credit cards and other payment system issues.

ALSTON + BIRD LLP

Please click here to register for this event or contact Alexandra Wilson at alexandra.wilson@alston.com or 212-210-9421.

Registrants will receive the call-in number and registration code in advance of this teleseminar.

Thursday, October 15, 2009 | 12:00p.m. - 1:00p.m. EST

This event is free of charge to clients and friends of Alston & Bird LLP.

CLE credit is pending for this program.