D.C.'S RISING STARS

EDWARD KANG

ALSTON & BIRD, 37

When federal investigators come knocking, businesses have Alston & Bird partner Edward Kang on speed dial. Kang spent four years as a trial attorney in the U.S. Department of Justice Criminal Division's public integrity and fraud sections before joining Alston in 2013. At the Justice Department, he worked on the criminal case stemming from the 2010 Deepwater Horizon oil spill and bribery cases that involved Arizona and Alabama state legislators. Since moving to Alston, Kang has focused on white-collar matters concerning the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and Office of Foreign Assets Control sanctions, among other issues, as a member of the firm's government- and internal-investigations group.
