

“Academia and Related Export Controls The Impact & Implications of Compliance and Non-Compliance”

Wednesday, September 30th, 2015, 1-3 PM

At the University of Illinois at Chicago - Student Center East/Tower, Tower Room 302, 750 South Halsted Street, Chicago, IL 60607

- Driving/Parking Directions: <https://admissions.uic.edu/undergrad/visit/sce.html> -

Join us for this free, engaging and informative dialogue facilitated by:
John Priecko, President and Managing Partner, Trade Compliance Solutions and Jason Waite, Partner, the law firm of Alston & Bird LLP

This unique program is designed specifically for academic institutions, labs, federally funded research and development centers and any entity doing research with foreign nationals and/or foreign persons. Anyone involved including compliance, legal, principal researchers, professors and students are all invited and will benefit from the exchange.

This interactive and practical application focused outreach, education and training addresses key aspects of trade compliance and the consequences and costs of getting it right or wrong in the context of the research community and evolving Export Control Reform. It includes lessons learned from real world case studies and settlements with the U.S. Departments of Commerce, State and Justice.

REGISTRATION Email to: office.chicago@trade.gov

Please include your full name, title, organization, phone number, mail and email address

- Registration Deadline: Monday, September 28th -

Direct Questions to

Matthew Poole, Commercial Officer, Chicago US Export Assistance Center, 312-353-8040

This no cost session is presented in conjunction with the Illinois District Export Council™ International Trade Association of Greater Chicago and US Commercial Service® day-long program, “Evolving Export Controls, Compliance and Enforcement,” September 29th, at the Embassy Suites O’Hare Rosemont.

“Program hosts, sponsors, partners and speakers support the goals of this event, but do not necessarily endorse the specific products, services or views of the participating individuals or organizations.”

(As of 7/20/2015)