Notice To Holders

To: All Holders and Third-Party Holder Reporting Entities
From: Danielle Anthony, Deputy Treasurer, Unclaimed Property
Date: June 23, 2023
Subject: Compliance with AB55

On June 2, 2023, Assembly Bill 55 ("bill") was signed into law. This notice is intended to outline changes made by the bill, the effective date of the bill and the options available to Holders to get into compliance with the bill.

Changes made by the bill:

The bill included many changes to existing laws effecting Holder Reporting. These changes include, but are not limited to:

- Changes to the dormancy triggers for:
 - Stocks and other equity interest
 - Automatically renewable deposits
 - Insurance type properties
 - Individual Retirement Accounts (both tax deferred/exempt and non tax deferred/exempt)
 - Pre-need burial and funeral contracts
 - Gift certificates no longer honored by the holder
- Incorporates knowledge of death for various property types as a dormancy trigger;
- Incorporates IRS W-8BEN forms as an indication of owner interest for foreign owners;
- Defines when automatic transactions qualify as an indication of owner interest;
- Modifies the information required to be included in a report;
- Modifies due diligence requirements for stocks, retirement accounts and virtual currency;

UNCLAIMED PROPERTY

Effective Date: All changes made by the bill are effective on July 1, 2023. Holders are expected to treat properties in the manner prescribed in the bill as of the effective date and are expected to be compliant with the bill for the reporting cycle ending on October 31, 2023. If a holder does not believe that they can be compliant by the reporting deadline, the holder will be required to submit an extension request no later than September 30, 2023, detailing which types of properties the Holder believes it will be out of compliance with and when the Holder reasonably estimates it will be in compliance with the bill, up to 6 months. Penalties and interest associated with approved extension requests due to changes in the bill will be waived, so long as the Holder is in compliance by the date agreed upon in the Extension approval. Properties not subject to these changes are considered reportable in the normal reporting cycles and will not be considered for the purposes of an extension request and/or special waiver as outlined in this notice. If the requestor of an extension request reports on behalf of multiple holders (as delineated by unique FEIN and as determined by NRS 120A.560, one extension request may be submitted with an attachment addressing the name and FEIN of each holder the extension is requested for. Extension request forms and addendums can be found at the link below and is to be emailed to UPAudit@NevadaTreasurer.gov.

If the Holder requires clarification on the bill, please email UPAudit@NevadaTreasurer.gov by September 1, 2023 with the specific circumstances requiring clarification.
