Alix Allison focuses her practice on oil and gas litigation, representing clients in lease termination, royalty litigation, contract disputes, and trespass-to-try-title suits. She has brought cases before both state and federal courts and also has experience in complex commercial disputes. Alix has been recognized for her work in oil and gas litigation by The Best Lawyers in America® as “One to Watch” in 2021 and 2022 and Texas Super Lawyers “Rising Stars” in 2020. She was also named a “Top Attorney (Civil Law - Litigation)” by Fort Worth, Texas magazine in 2017 and 2018.

Before joining Alston & Bird, Alix served as a federal law clerk for the Hon. Reed O’Connor of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Texas. She earned her J.D., magna cum laude, from Texas Tech University, where she served as an articles editor of the Texas Tech Law Review. Alix also gained practical experience as a judicial extern for the Hon. Lee Gabriel of the Second Court of Appeals of Texas.
