Amie Benedetto is a partner in the Real Estate Group. Amie offers counsel on a variety of investment management and securities law matters, with an emphasis on private real estate investment vehicles, separate accounts, and REITs. She advises major financial institutions, fund sponsors, investment advisers, and institutional investors on commercial, transactional, and regulatory compliance matters relating to the formation, offering, and management of private funds, separate accounts, and co-investments. She is a seasoned adviser on real estate transactions in the U.S. and abroad, focusing on acquisitions, minority/majority entity-level investing, financing, and joint ventures.

Before joining the firm, Amie served as in-house counsel to Proprium Capital Partners, a privately held real estate principal investing firm, where she was responsible for all in-house legal aspects of fund formation, management, investor relations, real estate transactions, and regulatory compliance. She also served as a vice president and executive director at Morgan Stanley Real Estate Investing, where she was general counsel to the Real Estate Special Situations Funds and counsel to the MSREF fund series. Amie began her legal career at an international law firm representing investment banks and private equity funds in the acquisition, development, leasing, and sale of various real estate assets. Amie is listed in The Best Lawyers in America® in the Real Estate category.
