

Caroline Rawls Strumph

Senior Associate

404.881.7849

caroline.strumph@alston.com

Atlanta | One Atlantic Center, 1201 West Peachtree Street, Suite 4900 | Atlanta, GA 30309-3424

Caroline Rawls Strumph focuses her practice on commercial litigation and government investigations. She defends clients in matters involving complex contract disputes, class actions, and fraud. Caroline also has experience defending companies against qui tam litigation and associated civil and criminal government investigations. Caroline is recognized by The Best Lawyers in America® “Ones to Watch” for Commercial Litigation.

Caroline served as a law clerk to the Honorable Michael Lawrence Brown of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Georgia. She received her J.D. from New York University School of Law, where she served as articles editor for the Journal of Legislation & Public Policy and as a member of the board of the Latino Law Students Association. Caroline also externed for the U.S. Attorney’s Office for the Southern District of New York and the Office of the New York State Attorney General. Caroline earned her undergraduate degree, with honors, from Princeton University.

Representative Experience

- Member of the national counsel team for a top pharmacy benefit manager in the largest multidistrict litigation in U.S. history.
- Represented a major wireless solutions provider in litigation arising from the construction of an NFL stadium.
- Obtained dismissal of a class action on behalf of a Fortune 100 health care services company involving alleged fraud and misrepresentation. Successfully defended the company on appeal before the Eleventh Circuit.
- Representing one of the country’s largest postsecondary education providers and a proprietary education company in multiple False Claims Act actions alleging violations of Title IV regulations.
- Counsel to multiple health care services providers, including hospitals and post-acute and ancillary services providers, at the trial and appellate levels in connection with qui tam lawsuits alleging violations of the False Claims Act.
- Counsel to a Fortune 100 logistics company during an internal investigation concerning the theft of trade secrets.
- Represented the nation’s largest health care services company against multiple nationwide class action lawsuits alleging contract, fraud, RICO, and ERISA violations.
- Represented the U.S. Chamber of Commerce and the Georgia Chamber of Commerce as amici curiae before the Georgia Supreme Court in a case about how to calculate damages awards.

Education

- New York University (J.D., 2016)

- Princeton University (A.B., 2012)

Admitted to Practice

- Georgia

Related Services

Litigation | Commercial | Appellate | Class Action & Multidistrict Litigation | Health Care Litigation | Industrials & Manufacturing