Christina Braswell represents various parties in structured finance transactions, including borrowers, lenders, sponsors, issuers, and financial institutions across a wide spectrum of asset classes.

Christina rejoined the firm after spending time as in-house corporate and securities counsel at a leading automotive manufacturer, where she worked on ABS transactions, corporate debt facilities, derivatives matters, SEC filings, and various other governance and disclosure agreements. Prior to initially joining Alston & Bird, Christina was a finance associate in the Charlotte office of an Am Law 100 firm.
