Connor Bourland is an associate in the Litigation & Trial Practice Group. He focuses his practice on oil and gas litigation and dispute resolution, including contract disputes, trespass-to-try-title suits, lease termination, and royalty litigation. Connor also represents clients in a variety of complex commercial disputes in both state and federal courts.

Connor earned his J.D., with highest honors, from the University of Oklahoma College of Law, where he served as research editor of the Oklahoma Law Review, was selected to the Order of the Coif and Order of the Barristers, and won a national championship in moot court. Connor also served as a judicial intern for the Hon. Robert Bacharach, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit, and the Hon. Patrick Wyrick, Oklahoma Supreme Court. In addition, he was selected as the 2018 Distinguished Law Student for the Tenth Circuit by the American College of Bankruptcy.
