

Emma Rigby

Associate

+44 20 3907 1289

emma.rigby@alston.com

London | 4th Floor, Octagon Point, St. Paul's, 5 Cheapside | London, EC2V 6AA

Emma Rigby is an associate in Alston & Bird's Finance Group, focusing on domestic and international real estate finance and leveraged finance matters. Emma works with a wide range of clients, including corporate borrowers and financial institutions. She has additional experience in corporate reorganizations and general corporate advisory.

Representative Experience

- Represented a large European real estate client on the amendment of its £57 million facility agreement with a large national bank.
- Represented one of the largest UK property development clients in its entry into a £80 million SONIA-referencing facility agreement with a large multinational bank and guarantors across multiple jurisdictions.
- Represented a small UK lender on a £6 million facility.
- Provided support to a UK real estate client on its issue of SEK 600 million senior unsecured fixed rate bonds, due in 2024, to be listed on NASDAQ Stockholm.
- Assisted a European real estate client on its entry into a loan note instrument to govern the issue of unsecured variable funding loan notes to be listed on The International Stock Exchange in Jersey as a eurobond.
- Provided support to an automotive client on the sale of various business assets for $10 million.
- Represented a European real estate company on its acquisition of a limited liability partnership membership interest for £4 million.

Education

- University of Law (L.P.C., M.Sc., 2019)
- University of Sheffield (LL.B. Hons, 2017)

Admitted to Practice

- Solicitor of the Senior Courts of England and Wales

Related Services

Corporate & Finance | Finance