

Gregg A. Fish

Senior Associate

+1 212 210 9506 | gregg.fish@alston.com

New York | 90 Park Avenue, 15th Floor | New York, NY 10016-1387

Related Services

Litigation ■ Antitrust

Gregg Fish is a senior associate with Alston & Bird's Litigation & Trial Practice Group. Gregg focuses his practice on high-stakes antitrust and commercial litigation. He also has significant experience conducting investigations in response to government inquiries and whistleblower allegations.

Gregg received his J.D., cum laude, from New York University. During law school, Gregg served as a judicial intern for Hon. Sidney H. Stein in the U.S. District Court, Southern District of New York, where he worked on a variety of civil and criminal matters. He was also an articles editor of the New York University Law Review.

Representative Experience

Commercial Litigation

- Representing a telecommunications company in civil litigation alleging fraud, franchise violations, and tortious interference with contracts. (E.D.N.Y.).
- Representing a foreign bank in civil litigation alleging multibillion-dollar fraud and civil conspiracy. (N.Y. Sup. Ct.).
- Represented a financial technology company, and its CEO and founders, in civil litigation alleging misappropriation of business idea, breach of contract, and breach of fiduciary duty. (S.D.N.Y.).
- Represented a digital media and financial education company, and its founder and CEO, in civil litigation alleging theft of trade secrets. (S.D. Fla.).
- Represented a multibillion-dollar communications company in the prosecution of fraud claims. (Del. Ch.).

Antitrust Litigation

- Represented a major media company in a six-week antitrust trial brought by the Department of Justice. (D.D.C.).
- Represented a leading pharmaceutical company in class action alleging violations of the Sherman Act and state antitrust and consumer protection laws. (S.D.N.Y.).
- Represented a multinational pharmaceutical and medical device company in multidistrict litigation alleging violations of the Sherman Act and state antitrust and consumer protection laws.

Investigations and White Collar

- Represented a pharmaceutical company and senior executives in an investigation by the Securities and Exchange Commission concerning potential violations of the Exchange Act.
- Represented multiple media companies in investigations by the Securities and Exchange Commission concerning accounting practices.
- Represented witnesses in criminal investigations by the New York County District Attorney's Office, New Jersey State Attorney General's Office, and Department of Justice.
- Represented brokers during investigations by the Commodity Futures Trading Commission.
- Conducted an internal investigation in response to whistleblower allegations of sexual misconduct by senior executives of a public company.
- Advised a Fortune 100 company regarding a response to a Department of Justice subpoena.

Education

- New York University (J.D., 2015)
- Cornell University (B.A., 2011)

Admitted to Practice

- New York