Litigation

Jason Sigalos focuses on complex commercial litigation and arbitration, primarily in the areas of intellectual property (including disputes over F/RAND compensation), antitrust, and insurance law.

Before joining Alston & Bird, Jason served as a law clerk to the Hon. R. Lanier Anderson III of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit.

Jason graduated first in his class from the University of Georgia School of Law, where he was inducted into the Order of the Coif. During law school, he served as editor-in-chief of the Georgia Law Review, an award-winning member of the moot court team, and a member of the Appellate Litigation Clinic, where he successfully argued before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit on behalf of a client seeking deferral of removal under the Convention Against Torture.
