Alston Discovery

Jonathan Wilinsky is a staff attorney with Alston Discovery, an integrated team of legal, technology, and financial professionals devoted to helping clients creatively, efficiently, and cost-effectively manage electronic discovery matters and analyze documents and contracts.

Jonathan focuses on the review and analysis of emails and other electronic data for litigation, transactional matters, and internal and government investigations, including developing defensible, repeatable protocols, workflows, and related litigation management. He has extensive experience applying state-of-the-art litigation technology, advanced analytics, and project management tools, which boosts efficiency while reducing review time and overall costs.

Representative Experience

- Conducting custodian interviews and supervising the collection of relevant electronic and physical records in preparation for large-scale internal policy reviews and complex discovery responses.
- Managing e-discovery requests in response to subpoenas, requests for production of documents, and all other forms of discovery.
- Supervising and managing attorneys in the discovery and production of general commercial and financial litigation, product liability, health care, IP litigation, and government investigation documents.
- Creating privilege logs and performing quality-control review of work product before document production or additional levels of review.
- Utilizing analytics and technology-assisted review, including working with clients to improve the precision and recall of document searches and improving workflows to maximize productivity.
