Litigation ■ Business Litigation

Laura Lacárcel Julià focuses her practice on handling commercial litigation matters. Before joining the firm, Laura worked as an associate at an Am Law 100 firm representing individual and corporate clients in a variety of disputes, including real estate, data privacy, unfair competition, and fraud. She also served as an extern to the Hon. Kim M. Wardlaw with the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Laura earned her J.D. from the UCLA School of Law, where she served as the chief managing editor of the Journal of Law and Gender and volunteered with El Centro Legal Clinic. After receiving her L.L.B. and a double master's in international business law and legal practice from ESADE Law School, she interned with a multinational law firm and the Spanish chapter of the International Chamber of Commerce.
