

Nameir Abbas

Senior Associate

202.239.3004

nameir.abbas@alston.com

Washington, D.C. | The Atlantic Building, 950 F Street, NW | Washington, DC 20004-1404

Nameir Abbas is a senior associate on Alston & Bird's Privacy Cyber & Data Strategy team.

Nameir received his J.D., with honors, from George Washington University Law School. He received his B.S. and B.A., also with honors, in economics and international relations from American University.

Before joining the firm, Nameir gained experience drafting judicial orders as an intern for the Honorable Wanda Keyes Heard of the Circuit Court of Maryland for Baltimore City. Nameir was also an intern for the U.S. Department of Commerce, where he focused his work on the trade relations of the United States and the Middle East.

Publications & Presentations

Publications

- "5 Key Differences In EU And US Breach Notification Regime," Law360, December 18, 2020.
- "Carpenter Ruling May Be Turning Point In Digital Data Privacy," Law360, August 8, 2018.
- "Data Monetization and State Privacy Laws," Cyberspace Lawyer, August 2017.
- "New York cybersecurity rules: What firms need to know," Securities Regulation Daily, May 24, 2017.
- "NY Governor Cuomo Announces Final NYDFS Cybersecurity Regulations," Cyberspace Lawyer, May 2017.

Education

- The George Washington University (J.D., 2016)
- American University (B.S., B.A., 2013)

Admitted to Practice

- District of Columbia

Related Services

Intellectual Property | Technology | Privacy, Cyber & Data Strategy | Cybersecurity Preparedness & Response