- National trial and appellate counsel for a major wireless telecommunications provider in connection with issues surrounding 9-1-1 services liability. Obtained complete dismissal of all claims in multiple wrongful death and substantial personal injury cases in federal and state courts; obtained affirmance of dismissals before the Fifth and Sixth Circuits; and appealed a federal district court's ruling on a motion to dismiss, resulting in a Fifth Circuit opinion ordering the district court to dismiss all claims against the client.
- Won a federal trial verdict on all claims in a pro bono case for a Honduran father who was seeking to be reunited with his children after they were unlawfully removed to the U.S. without his knowledge or consent.
- Obtained a favorable settlement for a Fortune 10 company in a case involving an alleged breach of a software licensing agreement.
- Won a federal court motion to dismiss all claims against a major telecommunications client in a wrongful death case involving allegations of a failure to ping a cell phone during an emergency.
- Represented a major computer and software company in a case involving the termination of a long-term reseller relationship related to travel agency booking fees.
- Won summary judgment for an educational software company on a plaintiff's primary claims in a software licensing dispute, which resulted in a favorable settlement of the remaining claims.
- National counsel to a major telecommunications company in product liability cases involving allegations of exploding or overheating cell phones.
- Won a challenge to personal jurisdiction in federal court on behalf of a Chinese manufacturer client in a product liability case stemming from a fire that allegedly caused substantial damage to an office building.

- Obtained complete dismissal of all claims against a Japanese client through a personal jurisdictional challenge in a case stemming from the plaintiff being injured on a popular theme park's roller coaster.
- Representing fireplace manufacturers in multiple product liability lawsuits involving alleged burn injuries due to contact with the glass front of the clients' fireplaces.
- Represented a client in multistate litigation related to the client's purchase of an education furniture company.
- Secured a favorable settlement that resulted in no liability or payments from a community bank client after removing the case to federal court and convincing the federal bankruptcy court that the plaintiffs lacked standing to assert their alleged claims.
- Represented a financial adviser in its application to be retained as an adviser of a debtor in a large Chapter 11 bankruptcy.
- Obtained dismissal of all claims against a client in a wrongful death case related to an intoxicated driving incident involving the client's employees during non-work hours.
- Represented a major telecommunications provider in preventing the release of confidential information by a municipality faced with multiple open records requests related to the 9-1-1 system.
- Prevented disclosure of a client's confidential information by opposing an open records request that the client's competitor made to a municipal transportation system concerning a bid our client made.
- Obtained a favorable settlement for a client in a dispute over a faulty HVAC system in a newly built home.
- Represented and advised a large medical group in a state insurance commissioner investigation into overbilling.
