Patrick Hayden is a partner in the Finance Group. He focuses on mortgage-backed and asset-backed securitization, and he has represented financial institutions as indenture trustee in negotiating and closing hundreds of structured finance transactions, including CLOs, CDOs, commercial real estate CDOs and synthetic CDOs. He currently represents indenture trustees both in connection with new issuances and in connection with the ongoing administration of CDO and CLO transactions and has extensive experience with questions and disputes regarding deal structures and mechanics. Over the course of the last year, Patrick has been involved in the liquidation of more than 20 defaulted CDO transactions, advising the indenture trustee on the disposition of collateral, the termination of related derivatives transactions and the distribution of proceeds.

Patrick received his J.D. in 1994 from Columbia Law School, where he was a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar. He received his B.A., with honors, in Latin American studies from The University of North Carolina, where he was a Morehead Scholar. Patrick is admitted to practice in North Carolina and New York. He is regularly recognized in the area of structured finance by The Best Lawyers in America® and listed as “Lawyer of the Year” in the 2022 edition.
