

Susan Ballantine Molony

Project Attorney

704.444.1121

susan.molony@alston.com

Charlotte | Bank of America Plaza, 101 South Tryon Street, Suite 4000 | Charlotte, NC 28280-4000

photo.photo

Susan Molony is an attorney in the firm's Labor & Employment Group. She concentrates her practice on employment litigation and counseling in North Carolina, and assists clients with state and federal equal employment and wage and hour laws, and advising on employment agreements and restrictive covenants. She has represented employers at the administrative level before the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and state/federal departments of labor, as well as in state and federal courts.

Susan received her J.D. from Washington & Lee University School of Law in 2000, where she was managing editor of the Washington & Lee Law Review from 1999-2000. She received her B.S. in international relations, law and organization from Georgetown University in 1994.

Representative Experience

- Represents a worldwide transportation and logistics corporation in Title VII, Americans with Disabilities Act and other employment discrimination litigation.
- Counseled rapidly growing technology company in managing disputes with employees.
- Advised a mid-cap investment firm in training employees on anti-harassment and workplace issues and protections of confidential information.

Education

- Washington and Lee University (J.D., 2000)
- Georgetown University (B.S., 1994)

Languages

- French

Admitted to Practice

- North Carolina

Related Services

Labor & Employment