

Troy A. Stram

Senior Associate

404.881.7256

troy.stram@alston.com

Atlanta | One Atlantic Center, 1201 West Peachtree Street, Suite 4900 | Atlanta, GA 30309-3424

Troy Stram represents clients in state and federal courts across the country and has experience with a wide range of litigation matters, including antitrust, RICO, complex commercial litigation, and TCPA litigation.

During law school, Troy was an editorial board member of the Georgia Law Review and was awarded Best Oralist in the Georgia's Intrastate Moot Court Competition. Before attending law school, Troy served as a Teach for America member while earning an M.S. in educational studies.

Representative Experience

- Representing a major pharmaceutical company bringing antitrust claims against a competitor in the District of New Jersey.
- Representing a major pharmaceutical company in a government investigation of alleged price-fixing and customer allocation agreements.
- Serving as trial counsel defending a major insurance company in a certified RICO class action lawsuit in the Southern District of Illinois where the claimed damages were approximately $9 billion; case settled for less than 3 percent of the damages after a jury was empaneled.
- Counseling and defending numerous matters involving alleged violations of and compliance with the federal Telephone Consumer Protection Act, including defending multiple nationwide class actions.

Education

- University of Georgia (J.D., 2017)
- Johns Hopkins University (M.S., 2014)
- Pennsylvania State University (B.A., B.S., 2014)

Admitted to Practice

- Georgia

Related Services

Litigation | Commercial | TCPA Counseling & Litigation