

Zoë Atchinson

Associate

+1 202 239 3243 | zoe.atchinson@alston.com

Washington, D.C. | The Atlantic Building, 950 F Street, NW | Washington, DC 20004-1404

Related Services

Health Care ■ Health Care Legislative & Public Policy

Zoë uses her diverse experience and background to guide clients through their most complex health care policy needs.

Zoë Atchinson is an associate in the Health Care Group. She concentrates her practice on health care policy, regulatory, and legislative matters.

Before law school, Zoë was the manager of marketing and business development at a financial technology company and worked on several political campaigns. She also served as an intern at the U.S. Senate including with the Senate Special Committee on Aging, and as a legal intern for a large biopharmaceutical company where she worked on regulatory and compliance issues.

Zoë received her J.D. from Boston College Law School, where she was the vice president of the American Constitution Society, a frequent writer for the BC Law Magazine, and an active member of the Women's Law Center. During law school, she participated in an L.L.M. program at Sorbonne University in Paris. Zoë earned her B.A. in global studies from Colby College, concentrating in international economic policy and development.

Education

- Boston College (J.D., 2022)
- Colby College (B.A., 2016)

Admitted to Practice

- District of Columbia